The meeting was opened. James Currie (secretary) declared the meeting quorate based on the number of attendees.

Apologies for absence
Mark Oliver, John Makonnen, Caroline Neall and Simon Everitt gave advance notice to the club secretary that they would be unable to attend.

Approval of minutes from last AGM
The 2023 AGM minutes were approved

Treasurer's report
Nigel Hilliard (Treasurer) advised members that the club bank account has a balance which opened the year at £1,773.06 and had grown to £2,433.57. Income from Subs was a little down from the prior year at £1644 for the year end 30th September 2024 from £1,914 from the previous year. During the year, equipment costs were £133.48, covering repair of the timing equipment, food for AGM and Fun races was approximately £500), SnowSport England costs of £315.

Nigel advised that he uses a conservative membership base on which to ensure that the expected income for 2024/5 is expected to be sufficient to cover costs based on the current membership rates.

Nigel proposed that membership rates were maintained at £35 for the first members of a family, with additional family members being £16. This was approved by the AGM.

Nigel advised that membership had dropped slightly to 61, but showed that membership was still at a relatively high level.

Trainers' comments

Nigel read comments which had been sent by Simon Everitt in advance.

- Congratulations to everyone who earned a medal for Bowles during the year, with special mentions for Amelie who led on the quantity and Anthony (for beating Nigel in LSERSA)
- It was great to see Heidi and Lucy starting their coaching journey with Foundation courses and that there would be more the following year
- The over the hill session are going well. It was reminded that it was open to parent of children who were members, and that you didn't have to be a member to take part
- Lastly was a shout out to Alice Manning for making Simon smile every time she skis.

Approval of constitution

James Currie gave the background on changes which had been made to the constitution, which was to ensure continued affiliation with SnowSport England. Members approved the revised constition.

Election or re-election of Club Officers

President - John Makonnen remains in post
Chairman – Tom Wontner standing for re-election
Treasurer – Nigel Hilliard standing for re-election
Child Welfare – Jenni Watts standing for re-election
Club Secretary – James Currie standing for re-election
Athletes' Rep – Stella Pople standing for re-election

All existing club officers were standing for re-election. Pete Kenyon nominated and Steven Nelson seconded all officers, and all were approved by members.

AOB

Nigel advised that he would look at the age banding for the next club race, to try and get a more even split across categories.

James Currie advised that he was looking at sending out a google form for 2024-5 membership, as opposed to the paper form in previous years, which members thought would be a good idea. Membership fees would still be by bank transfer

Anthony Forte asked that if there were issues with the slope (e.g. sprinklers not working) whether notification could be sent prior to attendance, which was accepted.

In closing, Nigel was thanked for his continued efforts.
